Processing of personal data

Transfer of personal data

Personal data are transferred from the identity provider (your login service) to the services to handle which person that is logged in. Only eduPersonPrincipalName and mail are stored during the time the entity is updated, when registered/updated those values are removed.

When logging in to these test services, the following personal data are requested from the identity provider you use:

Personal data	Purpose	Technical representation
Unique identifiers	To record which person that is editing the entity	eduPersonPrincipalName
Name	To display the name on the webpage, are not saved.	givenName sn
E-mail address	To be used for sending information about the entity	mail
Assurance level	To verify the Assurance level of the person logged in.	eduPersonAssurance
Organisational data	To verify that the logged in person is an employee	eduPersonAffiliation eduPersonScopedAffiliation

In addition to direct personal data, indirect personal data are also transferred, such as which organisation the user belongs to and which identity provider that has been used when logging in. In combination with the above personal data, these can be used to uniquely identify a person.

Other processing of personal data within the service

All test services store technical logs for debugging purposes and security related incidents. These technical logs contain information regarding all authentications made to the test services and the personal data transferred.

Transfer of personal data to third parties

No personal data are transferred to third parties.

Lawful basis

Personal data are processed on the basis of public interest. Personal data must be transferred in order for system administrators of identity providers to be able to verify that personal data is transferred in accordance with the recommendations of SWAMID.

Right of access, right of rectification and right of erasure of personal data

No personal data are stored in the service except in technical logs for debugging purposes and security related incidents.

For access and erasure of your personal data, contact the Personal data controller.

Purging of personal data

No personal data are stored in the service except in technical logs. The technical logs are automatically purged within a week.

Personal data controller

Personal data controller for the processing of personal data is The Swedish Research Council, Sweden. If you have questions about how personal data are processed within the service, please contact operations@swamid.se.
